Be an Oklahoma State Capitol Docent! Welcome visitors and help tell the story of our State!

The Oklahoma Arts Council is opening the Oklahoma State Capitol Docent Training program on Wednesdays in July! According to RSVP Community Partner Marissa at the OK Arts Council, "At each training, you can expect to hear from current Docents, explore the Capitol's Art Collection, learn about the history of the Capitol, its unique architecture, and Oklahoma's three branches of government. You'll hear from special guest speakers and explore behind-the-scenes spaces. At the last session, you can expect to lead your own portion of the tour alongside your fellow participants." If you like history and appreciate the chance to share stories and meet new people, this volunteer opportunity is for you! Let Jamie at RSVP know if you are interested to get connected. Call/text her at (405)795-3980 or email jamie.williams@rsvpokc.org.

Give a neighbor a ride with ITN Central Oklahoma

This small organization runs on volunteer drivers with a heart for helping others, and improves overall quality of life by helping folks get to where they need to go, keeping them living independently longer! If you would like to help out with a ride in your area, let Jamie know.
